Union General George B. McClellan made his intentions very clear. Having found misplaced secret orders from Confederate General Robert E. Lee, McClellan reportedly exclaimed: “Here is a paper with which, if I cannot whip Bobby Lee, I will be willing to go home.”

The loss of Lee’s Special Orders No. 191 is one of the Civil War’s enduring mysteries. Join the Dan Sickles Civil War Round Table with Historian and Author Alexander Rossino as he presents a bold new interpretation of the evidence surrounding the orders’ creation, distribution, and loss outside Frederick, Maryland, in September 1862.
